Pisa a city in the lovely Tuscany region, right on the bank of the mouth of the Arno on the Ligurian Sea.

Campo dei Miracolo & Pisa's leaning tower are a must to watch for those visiting this Tuscan city that traces its history back to 1000 B.C. The grand buildings are relics of the former republic of Pisa's maritime might. Visitors can no longer climb the tower's 300 steps, but other attractions in the city where Galileo was born include the National Museum of San Matteo & Camposanto cemetery.
