HOTEL BIANCANEVE

Bed & Breakfast

Lovely comfortable property located at Nicolosi, A charming small town In the province of Catania, which lies at the foot of Etna, not far from Zafferana Etnea & Acireale.

Set In a lovely pinewood forest, the typically Mediterranean style structure, blends perfectly with the surroundings of Etna park, the first nature park to have been set up in Sicily.

Thanks to its location and its services the Biancaneve hotel Is the ideal place to spend your summer, relaxing in comfort amid the extraordinary natural beauty of the area.

Nicolosi, or rather the "Gateway to Etna"- is the most attractive mountain resort in the province of Catania & the best access point to the volcano. Nicolosi is closely bound to Etna, in the sense that the history & development of the town have always been conditioned by the volcano and by its eruptions.

Nicolosi had to face the violence of the volcano on several occasions. Despite the various phases of rebuilding, the town preserves several monuments: the mother church, built to a plan by G.B. Vaccarini during the eighteenth century, with its refined Baroque campanile made of lava stone and fine sixteenth-century wooden crucifix inside the church, the monastery of S. Nicolò, which became the Etna park headquarters, the churches of Santa Maria delle Grazie and S. Giuseppe, and the Town Hall, housing the interesting Volcanology Museum.

The beauty of the surrounding countryside and the pleasant mountain climate have made Nicolosi a famous and popular resort. The mountain town is also distinguished for its abundant production of mulberries, pears, olives, grapes, apples, chestnuts, vegetables and mushrooms, and for its extensive pastureland, thanks to which cattle, sheep, goat and horses are reared. Also worth mentioning is the Craft and Folklore Exhibition Market which takes place every
